

Story Box

The facilitator reads a book to a group of children and parents while demonstrating how to incorporate teaching concepts about print skills. These skills include"

- Where is the front of the book?
- What is the title of the book?
- Where do I start reading?
- Which ways do I read?
- Punctuation

Following story time, children and their parents participate in 10-20 literacy and numeracy centres that focus on the book presented. Parent informational handouts are circulated at the end of each session.
