

Families Together

Families Together is a family literacy program for newcomer parents and children together. This program honors home languages and employs the concept of co-facilitation, with a newcomer parent and service provider.

This program brings language and learning to families in an enjoyable and interactive way through the use of children's books, games, rhymes, songs and bookmaking activities. Families Together supports families in their efforts to connect to other families and resources in their community.

Ideal for: Newcomer parents and their preschool children

Time & Number of Sessions: Two and a half hour session per week, for 8 weeks.
